

RESPIRATORY THERAPY A GREAT CHOICE

You have been accepted into a profession that impacts people's lives when it matters the most. You will have job security and excellent earning power. Your ideas will impact how health care is delivered at a time in our history when those ideas are needed the most. Pat yourself on the back and celebrate your future in respiratory therapy.

CELEBRATE YOUR FUTURE IN RESPIRATORY THERAPY

NEW PRODUCTS FOR RESPIRATORY THERAPY

We now have five new products for respiratory therapy. When you order the anatomy reference clipboards, we will include samples of our new products free of charge, so you can introduce them to your membership. Send the form below with your order and we will get them on the way. If your RT organization is looking to customize products with your school name and program, we can make that happen at competitive prices. E-mail us at clipboards@earthlink.net for details on customization.

ORDER 10 CLIPBOARDS

Order 10 or more reference clipboards by October 31, 2006 and we will send your RT organization a sample package of our five new products free of charge. Great for appreciation gifts, raffles and direct sales to your membership. Let us know if you need raffle tickets and we will send them with your sample package.

- Our organization is ordering 10 or more reference clipboards. Please include a sample package of products shown above with my clipboard order.
- We would like to raffle your respiratory therapy products as a fund-raiser. Please include 250 raffle tickets with our sample package.
- Our organization is interested in information on customizing your products with our school name/program. Please e-mail additional information to the following contact:
